

1. Information about the indicator
Goal	Promoting sustained, inclusive and sustainable economic growth, full and productive employment and decent work for all
Task	Promote development-oriented policies that promote productive activities, decent job creation, entrepreneurship, creativity and innovation, and encourage the formal recognition and development of micro, small and medium-sized enterprises, including through providing them with access to financial services
The indicator	The share of unproductively employed in the total number of employed
2. Information about the organization
Organization	Bureau of National Statistics of the Agency for Strategic Planning and Reforms of the Republic of Kazakhstan
3. Definitions and concepts
Definition	The indicator is defined as the ratio of the number of unproductively employed to the total number of employed people, measured as a percentage.
Basic concepts:	The following categories are included in the group of unproductively self-employed: independent employees (unregistered); founders (participants) of business partnerships and founders, shareholders (participants) of joint-stock companies (unregistered); on an individual basis (inactive from among the registered; persons engaged in private practice (inactive from among the registered); on an individual basis (registered and active), with incomes below the subsistence level; persons engaged in private practice (registered and active), with incomes below the subsistence level; members of a production cooperative, with incomes below the subsistence level; in a personal subsidiary farm producing products for sale (exchange), with incomes below the subsistence level.
Justification and interpretation
4. Data sources and collection methods
Data sources	The source is the data from statistical observation T-001 "Questionnaire of the sample survey of employment".
Data collection methods	Household members aged 15 years and older are being interviewed.
Unit of measurement	Percent
Periodicity	Quarterly, annual
5. Calculation method and other methodological considerations
Calculation method:	The indicator is calculated as the ratio of the number of unproductively employed respondents in the current year to the total number of employed respondents in the current year, measured as a percentage.
Comments and restrictions:	The indicators are formed at the regional level.

6. Data availability and disaggregation
Data availability and gaps:	The data is available on the website of the Bureau of National Statistics of the Agency for Strategic Planning and Reforms of the Republic of Kazakhstan.
The level of disaggregation:	The data is disaggregated by gender, age, type of locality, level of education, occupation classification, and KATO.
7. Comparability with international data/standards	-
8. References and documentation	